OUR EXHIBITS

In our various exhibits, as mentioned here, we show large and small cottages and camps — erected and attractively furnished.

We also have on display greenhouses, play houses, kennels, bird houses, poultry and pigeon houses, garden equipment, etc.

We hope you will be able to visit at least one of these exhibits and become acquainted with the Hodgson products. However, if you cannot call on us, this catalog is well illustrated by actual photographs, so that it is possible for you to make your selection from it and mail your order. Because of the distant points we ship to, much of our business comes to us in this way.

TERMS: Prices in this catalog are net, and F.O.B. Dover, Mass. Full payment to be sent with order; or a deposit of 25%, the balance to be paid after receipt of goods, if satisfactory references are given. Prices subject to change without notice.

THE INTERESTING STORY OF A UNIQUE BUSINESS

OVER FORTY YEARS AGO a youngster with an ingenious mind conceived the idea of building small houses in a new way — completely in sections, that could be shipped anywhere, that could be erected by anyone in a few hours' time without the use of nails — simply bolted together.

Soon this ingenious young pioneer, Ernest F. Hodgson, built himself this small factory and equipped it with machinery. Thus was born the business that has grown in these forty years to such tremendous proportions.

This same inventive man, E. F. Hodgson, is still its active head.

Mr. Hodgson at first made small houses for all sorts of purposes, dog houses, poultry houses, tool houses; then one room camp houses, and soon came camps of several rooms.

But it was in the glamorous day of 1900, when that marvelous invention, the "horseless carriage", came into use that the business gained great momentum.

At that time came the demand for "Auto Stables", as they were called. The use of the automobile also brought an increased demand for the Hodgson camp and vacation houses. This demand for garages and

This Hodgson Camp of 5 rooms was exhibited at the Sportsmen's Show, New York, in 1906 and purchased there by Mrs. Nelson

After 28 years Mrs. Nelson, who erected this house at Moosehead Lake in 1907, wrote the letter on page 21 camp came from all parts of the country, and indeed from many foreign countries. There are Hodgson houses in South Africa; in Jerusalem; in Greece; in Belgium; in Italy; in South America; in Nicaragua; in Honolulu; in Newfoundland; Labrador, and many other foreign parts.

We know that many of the houses first built by Mr. Hodgson are still in use. For instance, the one purchased in 1905 by Denman Thompson, the famous actor. Also the one purchased by the Grenfell Association many years ago, erected at Indian Head Harbor, Labrador, is still in use.

Mr. Hodgson has kept in step with modern progress. Improvements in construction, materials and finish have been constantly made from year to year, so that today our houses are unique in appearance and construction.

The picture shown in this article of a house purchased in bygone days has an historical interest and demonstrates the originality of Mr. Hodgson's idea.

The illustrations of the houses being made today demonstrate the continued value of his achievement. These illustrations are from actual photographs, and will give you a very good idea of the appearance of our Houses. If you can call at one of our salesrooms or outdoor exhibits it will be a pleasure to show you the houses themselves.

Prefabricated Camp Cottages

*Built Complete at the Factory—Saving Time and Money—Scientifically Constructed to Ship Anywhere—Used Universally—Delightful to Live in—
Made of Materials to Last a Lifetime—Quickly Erected—Easily Enlarged*

ILLUSTRATED ON PAGES 7 TO 25 are the Hodgson Camp Cottages, a product of over 45 years of prefabricated house construction.

The exterior of these houses is made of enduring red cedar, with the sides oiled, the roof and shutters stained Cabor's moss green.

The interior has a tan colored waterproof and wind-proof fibre lining, with woodwork stained brown. The floors are of shellacked hard pine. The partitions are made of Celotex.

The houses are built in completed sections at the factory — sides, roofs and floors. Windows are fitted in place and doors are hung. The sections are shipped so completely fabricated that the smallest houses can be erected, with the use of our special key bolts, in a few hours' time; the larger houses in a few days' time.

These houses are used for cottages, vacation houses, both summer and winter; school camps, overnight camps, guest or overflow houses; for many uses in large camps where small buildings are needed; also for play houses, skating houses, rest houses, storage houses, garages, etc.

The Exterior Woodwork is dipped in tanks of linseed oil before being made up into sections. Roof and shutters stained moss green. All Outside Nails are hot-dipped galvanized and the hardware is either brass or cadmium plated, thus preventing rust.

Sections are bolted together with our special Wedge Key Bolts, an invention of ours dating back 35 years.

Our Wedge Key Bolts that make the houses go up like magic

A 5 x 10 ft. or 10 x 10 ft. additional unit to add to the first unit

A 10 foot Partition with peak and door

Made in Units. Easily and quickly increased in size.

With 46 years' experience in making unit built houses, we know that these Camp Houses are as practical as it is possible to make.

The Frames are of strong Oregon pine and cedar. The Outside Covering is of enduring cedar, which will last a lifetime.

A 10 x 10 foot house with ends. To this can be added more units with partitions, doors, windows, etc.

We use thousands of these each year, saving our customers much expense in the erection of our buildings.

The Interior is lined with a heavy tan fibre, waterproof and windproof, making a very dry camp. Woodwork is stained walnut brown. Floors are hard pine and shel-lacked. Exterior sides are oiled natural wood with roofs, doors and shutters stained moss green.

After 31 Years

"Thirty-one years ago I purchased a three section portable house of your concern and set it up permanently on an acre of land which I owned on Pawson Park, Branford, Conn. Later I sold it.

"Recently I drove to the Park and greatly to my surprise found the little building still in place and in use. Despite the passage of 31 winters and summers, the house looks well and sturdy and I thought that you might be interested, as I am, to know that it has proved to be all that anyone could ask of it."

Exceeded Our Expectations

"The house has exceeded our expectations in every particular, and we feel more than justified in selecting one of your houses in preference to building a home in the orthodox manner. The skepticism of most of our friends over the idea of a "collapsible" house has changed to wild enthusiasm over the finished product. In conclusion may I say that we unreservedly recommend Hodgson Houses to anyone who contemplates the building of a home."

"Our small house at Assembly Point is as tight and good looking as when built. We lived in it last year from May 20th to Thanksgiving Day. Although it is not Arctic lined and we had only a tiny wood stove during the last six weeks, we were comfortable even when the temperature hovered around zero.

"We have heard many pleasant comments from passersby during the six summers it has stood by the lake, and are always amused to hear the comment of those who enter the camp for the first time, 'We didn't guess you had so much room.'"

"The house which I purchased from you and erected on my property at Palm Beach, Florida, is very satisfactory. As you no doubt know, we had two very severe rain and wind storms at Palm Beach. This is by far more than I can say for nine-tenths of the houses built in Palm Beach."

"In the spring of 1906 I erected a Hodgson House on Moosehead Lake. In the winter of 1908 the house was carried by horses across the Lake on the ice, to the location where it now stands.

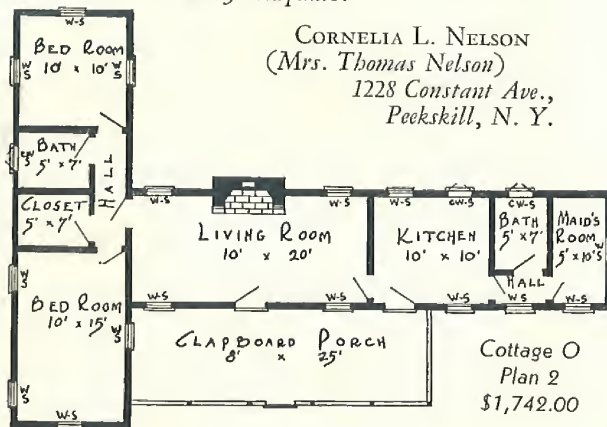

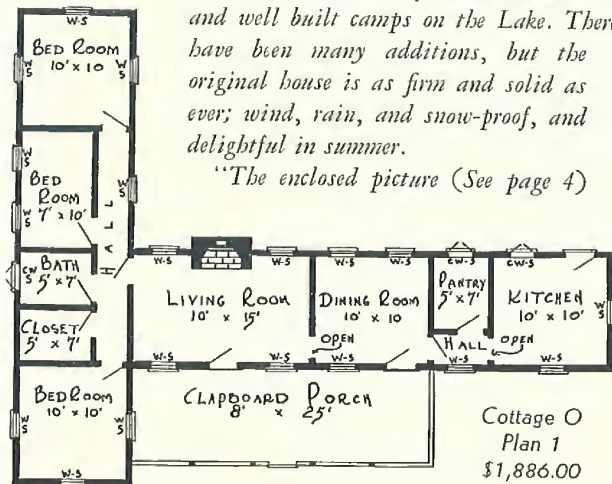

"After all these 28 years, and being used each season, it is still one of the most attractive and well built camps on the Lake. There have been many additions, but the original house is as firm and solid as ever; wind, rain, and snow-proof, and delightful in summer.

is one taken in a recent snow storm, while we were as warm and comfortable as could be with wood stoves indoors.

Hodgson Camp Cottage P. Plan 3

Camp P, Plan 1 — $1,503.00

Camp P, Plan 2 — $1,128.00

On pages 22 through 25 are shown Hodgson Camp Cottages made up with the use of two of our valley roof units.

These two-valley roof houses form an "H" and have always proved extremely popular, due to the fact that the Living Room is in the center, the Bed-rooms being located in one wing, while the Service quarters are on the opposite side.

Camp P, Plan 3 — $1,715.00

By use of the "H" design the houses are architecturally balanced, and almost double the number of rooms can be laid out on a lot of small frontage.

The Hodgson Camp Cottage, pictured on page 22, plan above, shows a special rail porch, rather than the stock Clapboarded porch.

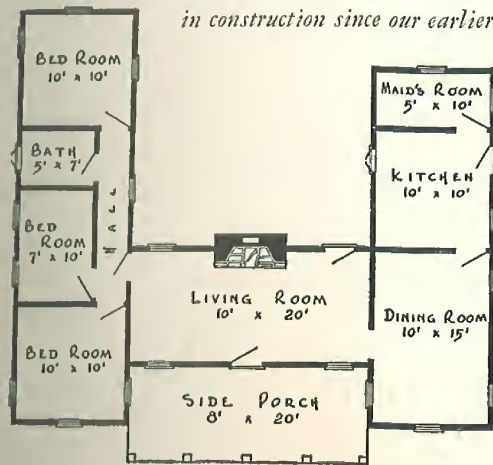

Any special feature, such as this, can be worked into a plan, but, because of extra hand-labor and holdups required in making these changes, it is necessary to make a five dollar additional charge, for each special item, over and above the itemized prices on page 8.

Hodgson Camp Cottage Q, Plan 2

Practical to Enlarge

Although the enlarged house is only twice the size of the old one, in convenience and attractiveness it has increased at least fourfold. The old and new parts are so similar that only by careful observation can they be distinguished and there is none of the patched appearance that might be expected when enlarging after eight years. We were pleased to note the improvements which you have made in construction since our earlier purchase.

Cottage Q, Plan 1 — $1,887.00

I wish to add also a word of commendation for the man whom you sent to direct the construction. He worked skillfully and tirelessly and the final appearance of the addition convinced us that the plan of having one of your men oversee the work was a very wise one.

We are delighted with the house and absolutely certain that this is the very best method of building for those who must make a small beginning and who wish to expand as the years go by.

FLORENCE A. EAMES

The interiors of our Camp Houses are lined with a special waterproof and windproof tan colored fibre lining, which is not only pleasing in appearance, but makes them practical to use for weekends and holidays through the late fall and early winter, with a fireplace or one of our fireplace stoves. The wood framework is exposed, and stained a dark walnut. The partitions are of Celotex, with stained wood trim. The whole effect is pleasing, livable, and affords a natural background for almost any type of furniture.

Being constructed almost entirely of Cedar, the air is always "sweet," regardless of how long the Camp has been closed. There is never that "musty" odor, so often found in the conventional type of Camp construction.

Hodgson Houses

Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

FOR over forty-five years Hodgson Houses have held a unique position in all parts of the world. Their inviting simplicity and harmonious lines appeal to people of good taste. With their attractive and well-planned interiors, they have given enjoyment to people in all sorts of circumstances, and climate, under the most trying conditions. The construction is simple. Made of enduring red cedar, in completely finished sections with windows in place, doors hung — in fact, all carpentry work and painting completed at the factory; and even the hard pine floors are sanded and shellacked before shipping; so that the houses are quickly erected by local labor; or by our factory men. Thus the purchasers of Hodgson Houses are saved much time, expense and the confusion and many worries connected with building operations.

The interiors of these houses are of Celotex, the woodwork finished in a dark walnut stain; or the interior can be left unfinished by us so that purchaser can paint or paper walls as desired. The construction is of the double wall type, with a dead air space between the inner and outer walls. Celotex, one of the best insulators today, is used on the side walls, ceilings, partitions, and under the floors, thus giving a cool house in summer and more comfortable in the coldest weather than a well built plastered house.

If interested in one of these larger houses send for our large catalog showing many pictures of our houses and plans.

HELEN P. FOULKE (Mrs. W. L. Foulke)

For those requiring a house of more and larger rooms than those shown on the preceding page, yet wanting the quaint, Cape Cod architecture, we offer this plan. Our Unit system is so flexible that it is possible to plan a house of almost any number and size rooms. The house illustrated may be created in an even larger size, or we can plan it with fewer or smaller rooms, as required.

Hodgson House No. 3803, located on Long Island

One of the most popular types of houses prefabricated by us during these many years, is that of our "H" shape, illustrated, on opposite page and as per plan below. Constructed with the living room in the center, bed rooms in one wing, the other a service wing, it offers at least two outside exposures to each room — making a cool, breezy house during the summer, yet fully insulated for winter use, if desired.

BIDDLE, WHELEN & CO.
1606 WALNUT ST, PHILADELPHIA, PA.

"First with regard to the bungalow which was put through its first real baptism of fire when I went up grouse shooting last week. The little house is on top of the Hogback Ridge and the wind and rain whipped across with hurricane force; besides it was bitter cold. Not a breath of air or a drop of rain leaked in and the little Franklin stove kept the big front room as warm as toast. I may say that it will give me real pleasure to recommend your houses and equipment without reservation to any one. We have had the greatest pleasure and satisfaction out of it last summer and this fall."

Hodgson House No. 3804, in Maryland

Here is another plan in our "H" design. This house, made up of the wider, eighteen foot units, illustrates the large, comfortable rooms that can be planned with these larger units. Spacious, attractive and well insulated, they tend to make a house cool and inviting in the summer, warm and cheerful during the winter months.

Hodgson House No. 3805, located at Webster, New York

This house, of different design than those shown on the preceding pages, illustrates one of the many effects and designs made possible through our Unit system. Low and rambling, it is the ideal type of summer residence. Well insulated, rooms of good size, plenty of closet space, all tend to make it a home of comfort and pleasant living.

Prefabricated Garages

Illustrated above is our Camp Garage

This Garage is made up of our Camp House Units. The outside is oiled, with a green stained roof, and interior is finished in the fibre lining and dark stained woodwork.

These Garages are made up in a stock size of 10 x 20 feet, and include one window and a pair of shutters in the center of each side. Price does not include wooden floor, $252.

Our larger Hodgson Garages, one of which is illustrated below, can be made up for any number of motor cars; and chauffeurs' quarters, work rooms, etc., can be incorporated in them.

These Garages are painted three coats outside, and can be insulated for year-round use inside.

If interested in this larger type of Garage, we will be glad to furnish Plans and Estimates on whatever you have in mind.

Laying House No. 6

This new design of sectional poultry house is made of enduring vermin-proof cedar, treated with a disinfectant stain inside, painted three coats outside.

Being made in sections, it can be ordered in as many units as required, and additional units can be added as needed.

The long back roof slopes down to a four foot back wall, thus affording a warm location for the roosts. The front is equipped with a celoglass frame, swinging in, a wire frame outside. This celoglass lets in ultra violet rays, affords plenty of light, is non-breakable and makes a warm house at night. The house comes completely equipped with mash hopper, water pan, nest boxes, roosts and plank bench in feed room.

Hodgson Stables

Adopting the latest trend towards small Stables we have created one, which, made in our unit system, has met with immediate success. Each unit consists of one box stall with covered passage-way in front. These stalls have a wire covered transom window in the back and Dutch doors opening out into the passage-way. If a wood floor is wanted there will be an extra charge. Any number of these units may be added together to create a Stable to accommodate as many horses as desired.

12 ft. x 18 ft. Three Unit Stable — $689.00

The inside of these Stables is wood sheathed while the exterior is white painted cedar clapboards with a slate colored roof.

The prices of these Stables are as follows:

First Unit, including two ends and cupola — $319.00

Each additional Unit, without ends but including partition — $185.00

Hodgson Sectional Greenhouses

These Greenhouses are made of red cedar. The exterior woodwork is painted white sides with a slate green on the roof of the Heater Room. The interior woodwork receives one coat of aluminum paint. The Greenhouses are made in sections, so that they are easily erected and easily added to.

No wooden floor is supplied as a cement, brick or dirt floor is much more practical. Bricks simply laid in sand make an excellent floor. Plant benches as shown by plans are supplied; also a plank board walk between benches.

We show below sketches of the various sizes of heater and potting rooms which we supply, with their prices. We also give prices below of the first glass units and of additional glass units. Any number of glass units may be added to any of the heating and potting rooms.

Greenhouse Heating

Our Greenhouses are heated by automatically controlled, coal fired hot water heaters. They are connected to four lines of pipes, that are installed under the benches, and make a complete circuit of the greenhouse.

The heaters are equipped with an expansion tank, so that they do not have to be connected to any outside water supply; simply fill the line and tank, and it should not have to be touched for a season.

Listed below are three stock greenhouse heaters. The No. 512 is suitable for heating one or two glass units; the No. 514, three to four glass Units; and the No. 516, four to six glass Units.

Greenhouse Unit

This picture shows a complete glass unit, having a door at one end. Such units are used when they are placed near some building from which they receive their source of heat.

To this unit can be added a second unit of the same size for $110.00, plus glass $25.00.

*Hodgson Greenhouse — One Glass Unit. Price without glass $185.00.
Extra for glass $40.00*

The picture showing the greenhouse in the snow was taken on a zero morning outside, with a temperature of 60 degrees inside. One of these greenhouses will start thousands of early plants to be set out after the frost is gone. The operating of our heating plant is very simple.

One Unit Greenhouse with Heater Room

This picture and plan show a greenhouse of one glass unit and a heater room. To this can be added more glass units. The heater room is better shown on pages 62 and 63.

Our No. 512 heater will easily heat these two units, but if you intend to add more units later we would recommend the use of our larger heater, which will heat up to four glass units. This would eliminate the expense of changing the heater should you enlarge the greenhouse. The larger heater would add $17.00 to the price of $172.00 quoted above.

Two Unit Greenhouse with 10 x 10 ft. Potting or Heater Room

The greenhouse, illustrated above, is made of two first unit greenhouses and one of our 10 x 10 ft. Heater Rooms. Below we have quoted on the No. 514 Heater. The smaller heater could heat these two units, but with this larger, higher potting room, we strongly recommend this larger heating plant. It also gives opportunity of extending one more unit at each end, without the necessity of replacing the heater.

Grows Many Plants

"The greenhouse has not only proved entirely satisfactory but is a prodigy of efficiency. All the flowers we can possibly use at Anchorbold and Friars Wood — many of our vegetables, and a great quantity to give away — are successfully started there. And it takes care of the rarer plants through the winter. It is hard to believe that so very much can come out of such a small greenhouse."

Details of No. 4 and No. 5 Unit Kennels

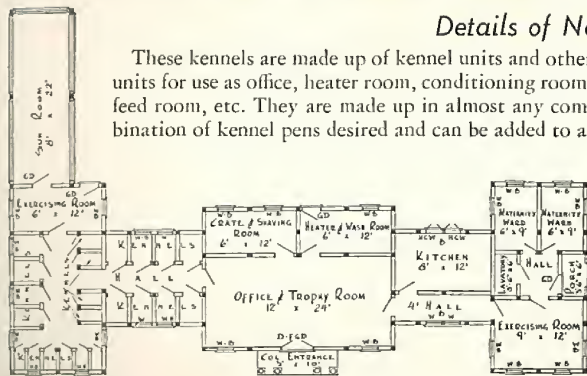

These kennels are made up of kennel units and other units for use as office, heater room, conditioning room, feed room, etc. They are made up in almost any combination of kennel pens desired and can be added to at any time. Glass units for exercising the dogs are extensively used and are very desirable.

The Exterior of these kennels is covered with red cedar siding, painted white on the sides and slate green on the roof. Cedar is extremely durable and sanitary and should last a lifetime.

The Interior is made of cedar and Oregon pine with a hard pine floor. If a cement floor is wanted, an allowance is made for the wooden floor. The floor is shellacked, the other woodwork is stained walnut. Partitions and gates are made of sheathing up about 4 ft. with 2 to 3 ft. of kennel netting above. The dog bench or bed is made of cedar and elevated from the floor. It is detachable for cleaning.

Each kennel pen as shown by plans has a window, a gate, and a dog door. This latter is controlled by a cord to open from the hallway. Outside kennel yards are supplied at extra cost.

One Unit, Plan B Kennel. Price, $250.00

This Kennel, made up of 100 stock Plan B No. 4 kennel Units with office has in addition, a separate heater room, feed room, storage, etc. The plan below shows how this kennel is arranged. It is well laid out, entirely self-contained, and it is unnecessary to have separate buildings for maternity ward, office, etc.

When planning a kennel, let us know your requirements and we will work in any special features that you may have in mind.

Price of this Kennel, $2865. If double walls are desired, add $561. Add for wide Colonial Siding $160.

NAMES OUT OF THE NEWS

HERVEY ALLEN

BONFIELD, OXFIELD, TALBOT COUNTY, MARYLAND

"I have used Hodgson Houses extensively both on my places in Maryland and in Florida. This is to say that I am enthusiastic about them in every particular. For any person who cares to erect a good looking, desirable, durable, and in every sense of the word, serviceable building, in the most reasonable way, in the least possible time and with the least trouble, Hodgson houses are the solution. The service guaranteed by the company is absolutely as represented. It is excellent, courteous, and efficient in every respect. I am more than enthusiastic about Hodgson."

HERVEY ALLEN.

W. T. GRANT COMPANY

1441 BROADWAY, NEW YORK

"You bet your life we can send you a picture of our Florida studio which we purchased in 1934."

"It is satisfactory in every possible way. In fact, we had a young hurricane in our yard a couple of years ago that pretty nearly ruined the place but it did not even joggle the little Hodgson house. I cannot say enough for them."

W. T. GRANT.

LANNY ROSS

598 MADISON AVENUE, NEW YORK

"It is with pleasure that I say my Hodgson house is an addition to my property and is a most enjoyable small home. We find that it lives up to its reputation."

LANNY ROSS.

FABLE FARM

NEW CANAAN, CONNECTICUT

"We like our Cabana very much. It has taken its place in our landscape and does not at all interfere with the atmosphere surrounding the main house, which is 160 years old."

"The greenhouse is fine also. We enjoy it so much and already have plenty of plants for the house, cuttings are beginning to grow, and we have carnations and stock as well."

"I can send you snapshots later."

FAITH BALDWIN.

MAJOR BOWES
